

BROMSGROVE PREPARATORY SCHOOL

We currently have an opportunity for a 1:1 Teaching Assistant to support Visually Impaired pupil in Year 4. Required from 11th January 2021 to 3rd July 2021, this is a temporary, part time role.

GENERAL DUTIES

To work as a Teaching Assistant at Bromsgrove Preparatory School having regard to the requirements of the School's aims, objectives and schemes of work and any policies of the Governing Body.

Specifically, to be responsible, under the direction of the Headmistress or other designated teacher, for the care and welfare of a pupil with a visual impairment, with the aim of narrowing any attainment gap to match that of their fully sighted peers. To give assistance to the pupil so that they can access the curriculum, participate in learning, experience a sense of achievement and develop independence in learning and other aspects of school life.

To share in the corporate responsibility for the discipline and welfare of the pupil.

SPECIFIC RESPONSIBILITIES

- To assist teaching staff in the provision of general care and welfare of the pupil in the classroom and within other areas of the School that are visited.
- To work with teaching staff in the observation, assessment and recording of information and to contribute relevant information on the pupil for teaching staff to use when reporting to colleagues, parents or external agencies, as required.
- To have involvement in the development and implementation of Provision Maps and EHC plans as required.
- To participate in the assessment and monitoring of progress of the pupil; sharing targets with the pupil as required.
- To supervise, deliver and implement teaching activities under the direction of teaching staff. This may include working with the pupil on a one-to-one basis (including pre-teaching and over-teaching), in a group or within the whole class, ensuring best access to the learning environment and curriculum.
- To contribute to raising standards by ensuring high expectations are set for the pupil.
- To support the teaching staff in developing appropriate learning plans and to evaluate and adjust activities as appropriate, to ensure progress is made.
- To implement agreed learning activities / teaching programmes with the use of specialist resources / equipment under the direction of teaching staff.
- To help with the general day-to-day preparation and adaptation of resources and equipment linked to the pupil's need.
- To support the use of technology and optical aids to promote the pupil's learning, ensuring it is working correctly.
- To develop skill in the use of specialist equipment used by a VI pupil, including software applications.
- To support the pupil's independence in all areas of learning, and curriculum access.
- To provide praise, assistance and encouragement to motivate the pupil.
- To foster social interaction of the pupil with peers.
- To maintain a safe environment including ensuring the equipment used is hygienic and any potential hazards removed, and to contribute to specific risk assessments relating to the pupil.
- To oversee the VI pupil's work in practical activities where safety is a consideration.
- To help supervise the pupil when moving around the school building, at break and lunchtimes and any activities away from the classroom or out of school.
- To be a named supervisor on the pupil's PEEP (Personal Emergency Evacuation Plan).
- To work with colleagues to ensure the classroom provides a good learning environment for the VI pupil, paying particular attention to lighting, layout and auditory factors.
- To accompany the pupil on visits, trips and out of school activities as required.
- To work collegially within the Teaching Assistant and staff team.

This job description is not necessarily a comprehensive definition of the role and the Teaching Assistant may be directed to undertake other such tasks or duties, which may reasonably be given to him / her by the Headmistress or senior colleague from time to time. It may be reviewed annually or earlier if necessary and it may be subject to modification or amendment in line with the pupil or school's changing needs, and after consultation with the post holder.
